IN-GAME ENTERTAINMENT

SKY GUY

Born and raised in Chicago, Sky Guy is the team's biggest fan. With five older sisters, all of whom were basketball players, Sky Guy formed a love for women's basketball at an early age. Sky Guy can be seen at every Sky game at Allstate Arena as well as at Sky clinics, girls' basketball tournaments, parades and libraries throughout the Chicagoland area. Sky Guy is always looking to make new friends and meet other Sky fans so say "hi" when you see him.

SKY DRUMLINE

presented by McDonalds

The award-winning Chicago Sky Drumline presented by McDonalds brings the beat to every Sky home game. Justice Stamps started the Drumline, also known as "QNB," to engage youth from around the Near North/Cabrini Green community. The Drumline performs around the state and is accompanied by an energetic dance crew and color guard.

SKY SQUAD

This five-man aerial ensemble amazes fans with extraordinary dunking displays, complete with mid-air passes, flips and twists. Besides performing at Allstate Arena for Chicago Sky games, Sky Guy and the Sky Squad have dunked all over Illinois at sporting events, birthday parties and city festivals. Sky Guy and the Sky Squad will appear at numerous Sky home games in 2013.

MCDONALD'S FLY KIDS

presented by McDonalds

The Fly Kids are members of the Chicago Boyz Acrobatic Team, started in 1999 by former circus performer and competitive tumbler, Tim Shaw. Team members learn discipline, respect, hard work, integrity and team work. The Fly Kids' high energy performances feature incredible tumbling, high flying trampoline, and awe-inspiring tricks and stunts inside of twirling jump ropes.

SKY IN THE COMMUNITY

BEING ACTIVE IN THE COMMUNITY IS A HIGH PRIORITY FOR THE CHICAGO SKY.

The Sky participates in numerous community projects throughout the year and focuses on building relationships with community groups and organizations. By getting involved in communities throughout the Chicagoland area, the Sky hopes to inspire fans to get involved.

WNBA Fit

WNBA Fit encourages girls and women of all ages to learn more about their bodies and the importance of physical fitness through programs related to health, fitness, nutrition and self-esteem. Programming inspires girls and women to get started on "being fit" through small changes in their daily routine. The content of the program is communicated and delivered through a 'Team' of Spokespeople and National and Local Events. 2014 programming includes Sky players, coaches and staff running instructional basketball clinics and Hoops for Health assembly program throughout the year. We will also be hosting a Fitness Festival on July 22nd.

Our programming plus an in-game experience is designed to show youth 7-18 ways to get active. The Sky Cares Foundation works with local girl-serving organizations (Girls in the Game, Girls on the Run, Game On! Chicago, Step Up Women's Network, Chicago Park District and the Mayor's Fitness Council as well as Chicago Public Schools) to identify youth from low income areas of Chicago and welcome them into an inspiring community of positive role-model volunteers. During the Fitness Festival various organizations introduce the kids to a variety of different sports and ways to stay active. Following each event the kids will participate in the excitement of a Chicago Sky game which affords an unforgettable opportunity for these kids to witness firsthand the power and poise of professional female athletes and provides a motivating message of what can be accomplished through dedication, determination and discipline.

WNBA Cares Week of Service

On May 3rd the Chicago Sky, its Foundation – Sky Cares, the Chicago Sky Legacy Partners will join City Year for a day of service at a local elementary school. Volunteers will spend the day giving the school a facelift through painting projects, planting of flowers, building benches and cleaning.

Inspiring Women

The Sky will launch a season long campaign to honor everyday women. To nominate a woman of inspiration visit www.chicagosky.net.

Hoops for Troops

Throughout the season the Sky will work with Packages for Patriots to collect items to send care packages to troops. Visit www.chicagosky.net to learn how you can assist in our efforts. The Sky will also host two Hoops for Troops games on May 26th and August 10th, along with a Memorial Day tailgate prior to the May 26th game.

Go Green

On July 22nd the Sky will host a Go Green game to bring awareness and educate our fans on was to effectively help our environment. The Allstate Arena home of the Sky will be highlight for their sustainability initiatives.

Breast Health Awareness

For over seventeen years, the WNBA Breast Health Awareness program has focused on generating awareness and educating women about breast cancer in addition to raising funds for the initiative. The WNBA and its teams have raised over $3.5 million to aid in the fight against breast cancer. The Chicago Sky has partnered this season with the American Cancer Society. As part of this partnership the Sky has created a Pink ticket package which includes a ticket to the August 3rd game, a pink Sky t-shirt and for every Pink package sold, the Chicago Sky will donate $5.00 to the American Cancer Society.

As part of the day's festivities, the Sky players will wear pink uniforms, and the Sky encourages all fans to wear pink in an effort to "pink out" the arena. At the game, breast cancer survivors will be honored guests, and a silent and online auction will take place where fans will have a chance to bid on the pink game jerseys, numerous sports experiences and autographed memorabilia from teams and athletes from the Chicagoland area, as well as, the WNBA.

SKY CARES

HELPING BUILD GIRL'S SELF-ESTEEM AND PROVIDING GIRLS AND YOUNG WOMEN WITH POSITIVE MENTORS.

The Chicago Sky Cares Foundation's mission is to enrich the lives of our community's youth and families by demonstrating the positive impact a professional women's basketball team can make in the community by inspiring greatness through strong, athletic and educated roles models. Sky Cares Foundation is able to actively support the mission through a series of programs and events built around the importance of education, health and fitness.

Over the last few years thousands of 7-18 year old children from diverse ethnic, economic and geographical communities have participated in Sky Cares' events. This year Sky Cares aims to again have a direct and sustainable impact by working collaboratively with local organizations to identify and serve youth from underprivileged Chicagoland areas, with the mission of:

>> Increasing youths' self esteem and access to positive, strong leaders and mentors
>> Teaching conflict resolution and proper ways to overcome obstacles
>> Teaching ways to get active that fit with daily schedules at home, school and life
>> Teaching how to become confident and positive individuals

SKY CARES

WNBA CARES LEAGUE & MARKETING PROGRAMS OVERVIEW

Through WNBA Cares, the WNBA is deeply committed to creating programs that improve the quality of life for all people with a special emphasis on programs that inspire youth and promote education, health and wellness and youth and family development.

WNBA Cares goal alignment focuses on Philanthropy, Service, Legacy and Inspiring Women. Since WNBA Cares launched, the league, players and teams have:

- PHILANTHROPY: More than $11.5 million donated to charity, more than $3.5 million raised in the fight against breast cancer
- SERVICE: More than 565,000 hours of hands-on service
- LEGACY: More than 45 places where kids and families can live, learn or play
- INSPIRATION: 27 current and former WNBA coaches and players have traveled to 27 countries across five continents throughout the world as sport ambassadors inspiring youth and promoting health and wellness through basketball.

WNBA FIT

The WNBA FIT platform is the league's comprehensive health and wellness program that encourages physical activity and healthy living for children and families through grassroots programs and events, and products related to health, fitness, nutrition and self-esteem. In cooperation with well-established health and wellness organizations, WNBA FIT informs, educates and engages children and families in healthy living practices.

WNBA GREEN

The WNBA is committed to a long-term environmental plan through the implementation of sustainable business practices and procedures that decrease the league's carbon footprint and contribute to a clean, healthy environment. The WNBA Greening Initiative is an innovative program designed to reduce the environmental impact of the league's operations and events.

WNBA HOOPS FOR TROOPS

The WNBA is committed to supporting our active and retired service men and women and their families around the world. Through the WNBA Cares Hoops for Troops program, teams and players honor military and their families through a variety of activation including in-arena nights, military base visits, ticket programs, in-game activation and meet & greets with Wounded Warriors.

BREAST HEALTH AWARENESS

The WNBA Breast Health Awareness program focuses on generating awareness and educating women about breast cancer in addition to raising funds for the initiative. This season WNBA Breast Health Awareness Week will take place from July 28 – August 3.

WNBA INSPIRING WOMEN

The Inspiring Woman platform celebrates women who demonstrate their ability to inspire others through their commitment, passion and dedication to work, family and community.

WNBA CARES COMMUNITY ASSIST AWARD

The WNBA Cares Community Assist Award presented by State Farm recognizes a WNBA player for their outstanding efforts in the community and for ongoing philanthropic work during each month of the 2014 WNBA season.

MICHAEL ALTER

CHAIRMAN/PRINCIPLE OWNER

Sky owner Michael Alter, a Chicago native with a deep commitment to the city, is dedicated to his franchise and sees it as a way to encourage opportunities for young women in professional athletics. He holds strong beliefs that Chicago is the best sports town in the country, which is a big reason why he decided Chicago needed a WNBA team. Alter's values include hard work, education, excellence and sportsmanship, all characteristics he believes that will lead the Sky to succeed as both an organization and a team. Alter, who was recognized in the Crain's Chicago Business 40 under 40 list in 2000, is the President of Chicago-based The Alter Group, one of the nation's 10 largest commercial real estate developers. Since becoming President in 1995, he has transformed his family's company from a strong, regional office and industrial developer into one of the nation's preeminent privately held full-service real estate companies. Today, the company has 6,700,000 square feet of space worth $712,000,000 under development in 25 different markets across the nation, from Washington D.C. to Orange County, CA. Alter has created three new companies under The Alter Group umbrella in the last 7 years -- Alter+Care, EnTrust Realty Advisors and Alter Construction Group -- each of which has become a strong entity in its respective field.

In 1994, Alter founded City Year Chicago, a cutting-edge, non-profit, national-service program which is best known for its signature program, the City Year Youth Service Corps. The goal of the program is to bring together approximately 1,000 people ranging in age from 17-24 from diverse backgrounds and hold them to a full-time commitment of a year of community service, leadership development and civic engagement where they mentor children. During City Year's existence, more than 1 million hours of service in local communities has been logged. When asked why he thought to bring a WNBA franchise to Chicago, Alter stated, "For me, it was like meeting Ernie Banks or Bill Russell in their prime. I was so impressed, not only by the WNBA players' prowess as athletes but their intelligence, their passion, their dignity and their power to inspire. After meeting these amazing women and learning more about the WNBA, it did not make sense to me that the third largest city in the country, and frankly, in my opinion, the best sports town in the country, did not have a WNBA team."

Alter has a Bachelor of Arts degree in government from Harvard University and a law degree from the University of Chicago. He and his wife Ellen are parents of three children, all of whom are interested in sports and keep their parents very busy. They live in Winnetka, IL.

MARGARET STENDER

MARGARET STENDER
CHAIRMAN AND MINORITY OWNER

As the first employee, Margaret Stender served as the founding President and CEO of the Chicago Sky for the first six years of this WNBA franchise. She led the team development from a vision and a dream to a thriving multifaceted professional organization. Margaret has overseen several milestones: a growing passionate fan base, partnerships with many diverse businesses, the venue move to Allstate Arena, a monumental TV broadcast schedule, the creation of the Chicago Sky Cares Foundation plus an exceptional athlete roster which includes three WNBA all-stars, one who also plays on Team USA.

"We have been proud to introduce our world-class athletes as exceptional role models," said Stender. "It has been rewarding to showcase strong accomplished women as an inspiration and a force for positive social change."

Margaret experienced corporate success prior to joining the Sky throughout her 22 years in business while holding positions that included: President of the Juice Drinks for PepsiCo, President for Quaker Oats Ready-To-Eat Cereals and Senior VP/GM of Travel Solutions for Rand McNally.

Stender attended the University of Richmond where she was a three sport student athlete and was elected co-captain of the basketball team for three years. She earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Education and Masters Degree in Business Administration from the University of Virginia.

Margaret, originally from Virginia, resides on the north side of Chicago with her two school-aged children. She serves on the Boards of The Latin School of Chicago and the Girl Scouts of Greater Chicago & Northwest Indiana. She is also a member of The Chicago Network.

ADAM FOX

ADAM FOX
PRESIDENT AND CEO

In his fourth year as President and CEO of the Chicago Sky, Adam Fox oversees team operations in all matters pertaining to the day-to-day functioning of the franchise on the administrative side of the organization.

Adam Fox is the Sky's second Chief Executive Officer since the company's formation in 2005 and brings nearly 20 years of executive sports experience to the top of the Sky front office. He was promoted to the position on October 1, 2010. Fox had joined the team in October 2007 as Chief Operating Officer.

Fox's plans to have the Sky focused on winning basketball games and growing the fan base have had tremendous results. In 2011 the Sky's attendance increased by an impressive 29%, and he intends to further that momentum through ticket sales, sponsorship sales, and creating large-scale awareness.

"We have built a solid foundation here on which to expand," said Fox. "Moving forward our short term goal is to continue to keep the upward trend we have going. Long term it's about making the Sky and women's basketball part of the regular sports fabric in this city and beyond."

Prior to joining the Sky, Fox spent 14 years with the Chicago Wolves of the American Hockey League. During his time with the Wolves, the '02, '00 and '98 AHL Champions, Fox took on a variety of roles including ticket sales, managing merchandise, sponsorships sales, directing game operations and ultimately leading the front office as the Executive Vice President of Business Operations for his final eight years with the team.

For five years leading up to his time with the Wolves, Fox worked in sales and sports marketing. For three years Fox worked for Elite Sports Marketing, operating temporary sports memorabilia stores at major sporting events around the country. Fox also spent two years as district manager for Retail Star, Inc.

Fox graduated from Indiana University in 1989 with a degree in speech. He and his wife Brooke have two daughters and live in the northern suburbs.

HEIDI WLEZIEN ANN CROSBY JONAH HERSCU TEAM PHYSICIANS

HEAD COACH/GENERAL MANAGER

HEAD COACH/GENERAL MANAGER

Now entering into her fourth season coaching in the WNBA, Pokey Chatman is driven to bring success to the Sky organization. In 2013, she led the Sky to their first playoff berth in Sky history while finishing atop the Eastern Conference with a 24-10 record.

Chatman was named head coach of the Chicago Sky on Oct. 29, 2010. In the 2011 season, Chatman led a young Sky squad to a 14-20 record with a winning record at home for only the second time in the organization's history. Through sheer determination, she rallied the team to beat several of the most talented teams in the league. An expert at guiding young, talented players, the organization's future looks promising.

Chatman came to the Sky after coaching professional women's basketball in Russia and 15 years on the coaching staff at Louisiana State University (LSU), her alma mater.

She served two seasons as an assistant coach for the Russian Spartak Moscow Region before being promoted to head coach in 2010. That year, she led her team to a perfect 16-0 record in Euroleague, the most competitive European basketball league, and also claimed the esteemed 2010 Euroleague Championship. Chatman also helped coach the traditionally unsuccessful Slovakian national women's team narrowly miss a spot in the FIBA World Championship.

Chatman was named head coach of the LSU Lady Tigers in the 2003-2004 season, when Sue Gunter was forced to take medical leave mid-season. Chatman went a remarkable 47-3 in her first 50 games as head coach, the second best starting record in women's basketball history. She later took the Tigers to three consecutive finished in the Final Four. In her first full season as head coach, she was named the U.S. Basketball Writers Association National Coach of the Year, Women's Basketball Coaches Association National Coach of the Year, Naismith National Coach of the Year, and the Victor Award Female Coach of the Year. Chatman earned a coaching record of 90-14 with the Lady Tigers in three season as head coach and 15 seasons overall.

She has earned two gold medals with USA basketball, one as a player for the Junior National Team in 1987 and another as an assistant coach of the World University Team in 2005.

As an LSU point guard from 1987-1991, Chatman led the Lady Tigers to their first ever SEC Tournament title in 1991, and earned recognition as the tournament's MVP. In her college career, she was named All-SEC three times, named Kodak All-American in 1991 and set 20 school records.

Chatman earned her Bachelor's Degree from LSU in December of 1991. She is originally from Ama, Louisiana.

ASSISTANT COACHES

WAYNE "TREE" ROLLINS
ASSISTANT COACH

The 2014 season marks Wayne "Tree" Rollins second year with the Chicago Sky. In his first year he helped the Sky reach their first playoff berth.

Rollins has served as assistant coach to the Orlando Magic, Washington Wizards and Indiana Pacers. He was named the head coach of the Greenville Groove, of the NBA D-League, in 2002. Rollins' joined the Washington Mystics coaching staff as assistant in 2006 before being named head coach in 2007. He has also worked with post players during Memphis Grizzlies' training camp and served as head coach of the American Basketball League (ABL) team the Hartland Eagles out of in Sebring, Florida.

Rollins was taken as the 14th overall pick of the 1977 draft by the Atlanta Hawks. He had a successful 18-year NBA career playing for the Atlanta Hawks, Cleveland Cavaliers, Detroit Pistons, Houston Rockets and Orlando Magic. In Rollins' 1,156 game appearances, he averaged 2.2 blocked shots per game and received NBA All-Defensive First and Second Team honors. He advanced to the playoffs in 15 of his 18 seasons and currently ranks ninth all-time in career blocked shots (2,542). He is the all-time leader in blocks in Atlanta Hawks history with 2,283 and ranked among the top ten shot blockers in each of his first nine seasons. In 1983, he led the league in shot blocking with 4.3 blocks per game and 343 total blocks.

In 1997 he joined former NBA players Dale Davis and Dikembe Mutombo on the NBA's South Africa Tour. The tour involved youth basketball camps, clinics and motivational speeches.

He attended Clemson University where he was ranked one of the Top 10 ACC Basketball Players three years in a row (1974-1977). He is the only Clemson basketball player to average a double-double four straight seasons and was the first athlete in any sport at Clemson to have their jersey retired. In 2003, Rollins was named to the 50th Anniversary ACC Men's Basketball Team.

Other career honors for Tree include being inducted into the South Carolina State Athletic Hall of Fame in 2002, the Georgia Sports Hall of Fame in 2007, and the African American Ethnic Sports Hall of Fame in 2007. His high school, Crisp County High School in Georgia, also retired his jersey in 2008.

Rollins is a native of Winter Haven, Florida.

ASSISTANT COACHES

CHRISTIE SIDES
ASSISTANT COACH

Christie Sides is back with the Sky for her fourth season to coach side by side once again with Pokey Chatman. Together they helped lead the Sky to the playoffs for the first time in the team's history. She has nine years of coaching experience at the college, international and professional levels. Over this past off-season Sides coached overseas with head coach Pokey Chatman in Russia for Spartak Moscow Region.

Since 2008, Sides has been an assistant on Spartak Moscow Region in Russia, where she helped Head Coach Pokey Chatman lead Spartak to consecutive FIBA EuroLeague Championships in 2008 and 2009. Sides has also served as an assistant on the Slovakian Women's National Team coaching staff since 2008 helping the team qualify for the European Championships in 2009, 2010 and 2011. The Slovaks took eighth place in 2009, their highest finish of Sides' tenure.

From 2004-2007 Sides was an assistant on the Louisiana State University staff also under Coach Chatman. She helped guide the Lady Tigers program to three Final Fours and two Southeastern Conference regular season titles in her three seasons with the team. Prior to LSU, Sides spent the 2003-04 season at Louisiana Tech as an assistant coach.

Sides began her coaching career as the head junior varsity coach and assistant varsity coach at Ruston (La.) High School where she served under Ricky Durrett. While at Ruston, Sides helped guide the Lady Bearcats to consecutive state playoff appearances.

Athletically, Sides played her first two collegiate seasons at Ole Miss for Hall of Fame coach Van Chancellor and helped the Rebels to a 34-22 overall record. She then transferred to Louisiana Tech where she finished her playing career for fellow Hall of Fame coach Leon Barmore. Sides helped the Lady Techsters to a 61-6 record in two seasons, including a trip to the 1999 Final Four. She holds the career record at Tech for three-point field goal percentage and ranks seventh in three-pointers made and eighth in three-pointer attempted.

Earlier in her playing career, Sides led Central Private High School to the state championship her senior season while earning the Louisiana Gatorade Player of the Year award and all-state honors. She ended her high school playing career ranked No. 1 in school history with 3,375 points.

Sides is a native of Baton Rouge, Louisiana.

October 24, 2005 The Minnesota Lynx beat the odds to win the first pick in the 2006 WNBA Draft in the fifth annual WNBA Draft Lottery. Minnesota had only a 16.7 percent chance of capturing the first pick.

February 1, 2006 The WNBA announces the 2006 WNBA Draft and Pre-Draft Camp will be held in Boston, site of the NCAA Women's Final Four. The WNBA events will conclude a week-long celebration of women's basketball emanating from Boston.

April 5, 2006 The league holds the 2006 WNBA Draft, and Minnesota takes the Louisiana State University's Seimone Augustus as the #1 overall pick.

June 13, 2006 The WNBA All-Decade Team is selected by fans, a panel of national and WNBA-market media and the league's current players and coaches. The team is comprised of the 10 best and most influential players from its first 10 years of play. Players named were: Sue Bird, Tamika Catchings, Cynthia Cooper, Yolanda Griffith, Lauren Jackson, Lisa Leslie, Katie Smith, Dawn Staley, Sheryl Swoopes and Tina Thompson. Van Chancellor, who led the Houston Comets to consecutive WNBA championships in the league's first four seasons, was named the WNBA's Coach of Decade.

June 23, 2006 In a game against the San Antonio, Los Angeles Sparks center Lisa Leslie scores the 5,000th point in her WNBA career and becomes the first player in WNBA history to reach that milestone.

July 12, 2006 The 2006 WNBA All-Star Game takes place at New York City's Madison Square Garden. Four rookies – Seimone Augustus, Cappie Pondexter, Sophia Young and Candice Dupree – are named All-Stars. The East squad, led by All-Star MVP Katie Douglas of the Connecticut Sun, earns its first–ever victory with a 98-82 decision. Off the court, the inaugural All-Star Salute: Celebrating Inspiration Luncheon is a key highlight of the festivities as former Secretary of State Madeleine Albright is the keynote speaker.

August 10, 2006 Diana Taurasi scores a WNBA single-game record 47 points in a triple-overtime game against Houston. Taurasi would also finish the 2006 season with new WNBA records for most points in a single-season (860) and highest scoring average in a single season (25.3).

August 30, 2006 As part of the League's 10th Anniversary season, the WNBA Greatest Moment presented by AOL.com is unveiled during Game 1 of the 2006 WNBA Finals. Fans, who were able to log on to www.aol.com/wnba, voted Teresa Weatherspoon's half-court, buzzer-beater – a shot that propelled the New York Liberty to victory in Game 2 of the 1999 WNBA Finals and on to a deciding Game 3 against the Houston Comets – as their favorite moment in the WNBA's 10-year history.

September 3, 2006 Lisa Leslie of the Los Angeles Sparks is named MVP for the third time in her career after having also earned the honor in 2001 and 2004. Leslie joined the Houston Comets' Sheryl Swoopes as the only players in WNBA history to capture MVP honors three times.

September 9, 2006 The 2006 WNBA Finals see the Detroit Shock earn their second league championship when they topped the Sacramento Monarchs in the first WNBA Finals match up ever to reach a fifth and deciding game. The rules will go into effect beginning with the 2013 season.

March 28, 2013 The WNBA and ESPN announce an extension of their partnership for another six years, paving the way for WNBA games to be televised on ABC, ESPN, and ESPN2 through 2022. The announcement, made by John Skipper, President of ESPN, Inc. and Co-Chairman of the Disney Media Networks, and Laurel J. Richie, WNBA President, extends the WNBA's television relationship with ESPN to 26 years. With the deal, up to 30 live games will be televised on ABC, ESPN or ESPN2 each season, including exclusive telecasts of the WNBA Finals presented by Boost Mobile.

WNBA TIMELINE

March 28, 2013 On the same day as the WNBA and ESPN announce an extension of their partnership, the league also introduced a new brand identity. The refreshed identity reflects how far the level of play has come in 16 years as stronger, more agile players have made the game more competitive. The cornerstone of the new WNBA visual identity is a more modern "Logowoman" -- the player silhouette within the logo -- that better embodies the athleticism and diversity of current WNBA players while leveraging the distinctive orange-and-oatmeal color scheme of the league's iconic game ball.

April 15, 2013 For the first time in the WNBA's 17 seasons, the league's Draft is televised live in primetime. The 2013 WNBA Draft presented by State Farm takes place for the third straight year at ESPN headquarters in Bristol, Conn., this time airing live at 8 p.m. ET on ESPN2. One of the most anticipated draft classes in league history is led by the "3 to See" -- Brittney Griner of Baylor, Elena Delle Donne of Delaware, and Notre Dame's Skylar Diggins. The Phoenix Mercury select Griner with the No. 1 overall pick; the Chicago Sky then take Delle Donne with the No. 2 selection, and the Tulsa Shock claim Diggins third.

May 27, 2013 While the WNBA's 17th season officially tipped off on May 24, it was a May 27 Memorial Day TV double-header on ESPN2 that introduced the "3 to See" – Phoenix center Brittney Griner, Chicago guard/forward Elena Delle Donne, and Tulsa guard Skylar Diggins – to WNBA fans. Griner, Delle Donne, and Diggins, the first, second, and third overall draft picks in the 2013 Draft, were the featured players as Tulsa first hosted the Washington Mystics and Phoenix then hosted Chicago.

May 27, 2013 Brittney Griner, the No. 1 overall pick in the 2013 Draft, registered two dunks in her very first game, becoming the first WNBA player ever to dunk multiple times in the same game.

June 8, 2013 The WNBA becomes the first U.S. professional basketball league to implement "Ref Cam" as part of a game telecast. A wireless, HD, mini point of view camera positioned at eye-level on game official Lamont Simpson, "Ref Cam" allowed viewers to virtually be on the court during the live ABC broadcast when Indiana hosted Phoenix.

July 6, 2013 Mike Thibault moved ahead of Van Chancellor to become the head coach with the most regular-season victories in WNBA history. Thibault reached the milestone with the Washington Mystics' 62-59 win over the Seattle Storm. The win was Thibault's 212th regular-season victory as a WNBA head coach.

July 27, 2013 The Los Angeles Sparks' Candace Parker was crowned MVP of the 2013 Boost Mobile WNBA All-Star Game after setting an All-Star Game record with 23 points, topping the mark of 22 set by Swin Cash in 2009. Parker shot 10-for-13 from the field and chipped in 11 rebounds. Leading into the All-Star Game, the Chicago Sky's Elena Delle Donne became the first rookie ever to lead all vote-getters for the event.

August 18, 2013Chicago's Sylvia Fowles became the first player in league history to post two 20-20 games in the same season. Fowles, who scored 20 points and added 21 rebounds vs. Connecticut on this date, had previously posted 24 points and 22 rebounds vs. Connecticut on May 31.

September 8, 2013 Second-year guard Riquna Williams sets a WNBA single-game scoring record with 51 points in the Tulsa Shock's win at San Antonio. The 51-point effort surpassed the previous mark of 47 set by Phoenix's Diana Taurasi in 2006 and Seattle's Lauren Jackson in 2007.

September 15, 2013 Guard Katie Smith, a veteran of 15 WNBA seasons and a seven-time WNBA All-Star, finishes her illustrious career ranked No. 1 in league history in three-point shots made (906); second in total points (6,452, trailing only Tina Thompson) and minutes played (15,725); fourth in free throws made (1,440); and fifth in field goals made (2,053).

WNBA TIMELINE

September 22, 2013 Forward Tina Thompson, the only player to play in each of the WNBA's first 17 seasons, plays her final game as Seattle is eliminated from the playoffs by Minnesota in the Western Conference Semifinals. The nine-time WNBA All-Star selection ended her career ranked as the league's all-time leader in points (7,488), field goals made (2,630), and minutes played (16,088); second in free throws made (1,480) and total rebounds (3,070); and fourth in three-point field goals made (748).

October 10, 2013 After advancing to the WNBA Finals for the third consecutive season, the Western Conference champion Minnesota Lynx toppled the Atlanta Dream 3-games-to-0, giving Minnesota its second WNBA title in franchise history and its second crown in a three-year span. Following an 86-77 Game 3 victory at Gwinnett Arena in suburban Atlanta, Lynx forward Maya Moore, the runner-up for the regular-season MVP award, was named the MVP of the Finals. The Georgia native averaged 20 points, 6 rebounds, and over 2 assists during the Finals series.

December 10, 2013 The 13th annual WNBA Draft Lottery (to determine the order of selection of the 2014 WNBA Draft presented by State Farm) was conducted in a televised event live on ESPN during SportsCenter for the second straight year. The Connecticut Sun, which had 442 chances out of 1,000 to receive the first overall selection, the most of any of the four teams in the lottery mix, ultimately won the top pick, followed in succession by the Tulsa Shock, San Antonio Silver Stars, and New York Liberty.

January 14, 2014 The WNBA's San Antonio franchise officially changes its nickname from Silver Stars to Stars.

February 5, 2014 The WNBA and NBA Board of Governors unanimously approved the purchase of the Los Angeles Sparks by an investment group led by Earvin "Magic" Johnson and controlling owner of the Los Angeles Dodgers, Mark R. Walter. The investment group includes Dodger co-owners Todd L. Boehly, Robert L. Patton and Stan Kasten.

March 7, 2014 The Women's National Basketball Association (WNBA) and the Women's National Basketball Players Association (WNBPA) entered into a new eight-year collective bargaining agreement, commencing with the 2014 season and continuing through 2021. The new collective bargaining agreement includes an additional 12th roster spot, salary cap increases and reduced revenue sharing thresholds, making it more likely that the players will share in league revenue growth. In addition, a new "Time Off Bonus" " (up to $50,000 per team) can be earned by a player who limits the amount of time she will play professional basketball (and/or play for a national team) during the off-season.

SKY BROADCAST TEAM

BROOKE WEISBROD
COLOR ANALYST

Brooke Weisbrod enters her first season on the Sky broadcast team serving as the color analyst. Weisbrod has been a college basketball analyst with ESPN since 2003, regularly calling men's and women's basketball telecasts. She extensively covers the NCAA Women's Basketball Championship and serves as a studio analyst for ESPNU, The Big Ten Network, and CBS. She has also covered college football and basketball as a sideline reporter. Weisbrod, a native of Cincinnati, graduated from Coastal Carolina University with a marketing degree in 2001. She played college basketball for CCU (1997-2001) and was named the Big South Player of the Year, the Big South Scholar Athlete of the Year and the NCAA Woman of the Year for South Carolina in 2001. She also played professionally for a short time in Germany.

PATRICIA BABCOCK MCGRAW
SIDELINE REPORTER

Patricia Babcock McGraw will give Sky fans live updates from the sidelines during the 2013 season. Babcock McGraw brings seven years of WNBA experience, covering the Sky since its inception and serving as color analyst for Sky TV games for four seasons, from 2009 to 2012. Since 1997, she has been a reporter and columnist for the Daily Herald. She writes a popular weekly women's sports column "Women's Watch" that is one of the few of its kind in the country. During college basketball season, she is a color and in-studio analyst for women's games on the Big Ten Network. She is also a color analyst for DePaul women's games and for the IHSA girls state high school basketball tournament in Illinois. Babcock McGraw, who received a prestigious Peter Lisagor award for a 2002 series on Title IX, votes on the Associated Press Top 25 women's basketball poll and also votes for various other national women's basketball awards. She is a graduate of the Medill School of Journalism at Northwestern University where she played basketball for the Wildcats. Babcock McGraw earned all-Big Ten and academic all-Big Ten honors over her career. A native of Culver, Indiana, Babcock McGraw was Indiana's 1990 Miss Basketball.

LISA BYINGTON
PLAY BY PLAY

Lisa Byington is excited to begin her second season as the play-by-play voice for the Chicago Sky. Byington is one of the more versatile broadcasters you will find in the business, having experience in play-by-play, studio, reporting, and as a basketball analyst - for both the men and women. She is the lead female voice for the Big Ten Network, calling the majority of its women's basketball package. Byington has also reported for the "NFL on FOX" broadcasts, as well as CBS Sports Network.

Working for the Sky, brings Byington back to her Chicago ties from college. She was a two-sport athlete at Northwestern University, having played both basketball and soccer in Evanston. She competed in the NCAA tournament for both programs.

"I can't tell you what an honor it was to be a part of last year's record-breaking season, and have a front-row seat to call it all.
This is the most exciting time in the Sky's franchise history, and I feel privileged to take part in it again this year."
